The 28th Conference of Society for Local Management
( Co-hosted by Aomori Public University Regional Research Center International Project)

Date: Feb.15, 2018 (Thu.) 17:30～19:30
Venue: 5th Floor Conference Room (Project Room 3, 4)
(Interpreter Available)

The Aomori Public University Regional Research Center Project and The International Public Lecture Project co-organized by the Local Management Association will be held a mini public lecture and a study conference.

MC: Mr. Tomohiko Kudo and Prof. Tetsuya Endo (Aomori Public University)

The International Public Lecture and the Conference Theme:
“Gaps in Government Performance and Their Implications for Reform”

The Lecturer & Keynote speaker: Professor Heungsuk CHOI (Choi Chol), Director of Center for Governance Design (Korea University)

Part 1  Open Public Lecture (30 minutes)
The Lecture Theme: “Gaps in Government Performance and Their Implications for Reform”

Professor, Heungsuk CHOI (Choi Xinghua), Ph.D.
Department of Public Administration
Director, Center for Governance Design
Former President of Korean Association for Public Administration
Korea University

Part 2  Mini Conference
The Mini Conference Theme:  “Toward Comparing the Local Government Management between Japan and Korea: What has been seen from the field survey?”

Target audience: Local government officials, general citizens, students, researchers, etc.

Application for participation
Applicant: Society for Local Management Kun Tadahiko
E-mail: kon_family2009@aioros.ocn.ne.jp

Contact information
Project Manager: Prof. Tetsuya Endo, Aomori Public University
Contact: (Representative) Tel: 017-764-1555 International MICE Coordinated by Society for Local Management, Aomori Public University Graduate School Building
1301 Endo Laboratory Tel: 017-764-1575 E-mail: endooffice2010@gmail.com